

Legends of Kent Cricket picture special

Winners of the team prize were, left to right, Sam Plews, Dave Tottman, Paul Blake and Ben Trott with Kent director of cricket Paul Downton, who made the presentations

Legends of Kent Cricket golf champion for 2018 Robbie Joseph collects his trophy

Team runners-up, left to right, Ian Cusselle, Alan Bundock, Ian Munday and Robbie Joseph

Tim Wren won the nearest-the-pin prize at the fifth after his shot finished millimetres from the hole

Third was the Axis Europe B team that was headed by Kent all-rounder Darren Stevens

Ben Trott, Legends champion in 2015, was nearest the pin at the eighth

Fourth after a quintuple countback were, left to right, Dave Gregory, Julian Thompson, Nigel Stevenson and Russel McKelvey

Ben Winsor won nearest-the-pin at the 11th

Closest to the hole at the 17th was Mike Wiles

Heino Kuhn had the longest drive at the seventh hole

Longest drive at the 18th was won by 20-year-old Oliver Donald

Can you spot some of the past and present Kent cricketers?

Featured at their tables are Julian Thompson, Ben Trott, Heino Kuhn, Steve Marsh, Alan Igglesden, Richard Hills, Tim Wren, Darren Stevens and Robbie Joseph plus the celebrity interviewees John Shepherd and Paul Downton

